About our Financial services

The Financial Conduct Authority

The Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) is the independent watchdog that regulates financial services. Use this information to decide if our services are right for you.

Treating Customers Fairly

Our business is committed to treating our customers fairly and ensuring our products and services are suitable for their needs. Treating Customers Fairly (TCF) is a core part of our culture and philosophy and you can review our commitment to it by asking for a copy of our TCF policy statement.

What products do we offer?

We are a credit broker not a lender. We can introduce you to a limited number of lenders or hire companies who may be able to assist you with your requirements. We will only introduce you to these lenders or hire companies.

The finance products we can offer you and the finance providers we predominantly use are detailed in the appendix of this document.

Commission Disclosure

We will receive a commission payment from the finance or hire provider if you decide to enter into an agreement with them. The nature of this commission is as follows: we receive a commission based on a percentage of the total amount of finance taken by the customer. The lenders we work with consider that the commission earned reflects the work carried out by us as the broker. This includes advertising the finance option, coordinating with the lender to arrange financing, and handling administrative tasks such as completing proposals, processing orders, and managing delivery. Commissions help cover these operational costs, allowing brokers to provide their services without direct fees to customers. This will not affect the amount you pay. We will disclose the amount of any commission received prior to you signing your credit agreement.

Other Finance Facilities

You may be able to obtain funding for your purchase from other providers and you are encouraged to seek alternative quotations and details of their products by researching on the high street, in the media and online.

What will you have to pay for this service?

You will not make any payment to us for processing a finance or hire application or for introducing you to a finance or hire provider. All charges that you will pay including, interest, documentation fees or rentals, where applicable, will be clearly shown on the finance or hire agreement.

Understanding our products and documents

You should carefully consider the amount of time you need to review the information and documentation with which you have been presented, and ensure you understand your commitments under the agreement. You should also consider if it is advisable for you to have someone you know to help you make your decision. This is particularly important if you have any health issues, difficulty in understanding information, or there have been any recent life events that could affect your ability to fully understand the information and documentation. Please advise us if this is the case and we can then proceed with your requirements in the most appropriate way.

Affordability

You should assess the monthly payments you are required to make throughout the agreement and ensure you are able to meet these and other obligations you already have without suffering undue hardship. If you are aware of any future events that will affect your ability to meet these payments, you should ensure the finance provider is informed immediately.

Your credit rating could be adversely affected if you do not make payments when due which could make it harder or more expensive for you to access finance facilities in the future.

Appendix - Products Offered

Personal Contract Plan (PCP)

Ownership options

- You have the option to own the vehicle at the end of the agreement if you pay the Guaranteed Minimum Future Value Payment.
- Alternatively, you can hand the vehicle back to the finance company at the end of the agreement. This may protect you from higher than expected depreciation levels.
- In some circumstances, if you have problems with the vehicle, you may be able to refer these issues to the finance company.

Restrictions/potential extra costs

A limit is set on the annual mileage of the vehicle. If you exceed this limit and want to return the vehicle at the end of the agreement, you will pay excess mileage charges. If the vehicle is damaged, you may have to pay damage costs if you hand the vehicle back with damage. Because you do not pay all the amount borrowed in equal instalments during the term of the agreement, you may pay more interest when compared to a HP agreement for the same term. You can not sell the vehicle until the finance has been paid off in full. You will need to service and insure the vehicle in line with the terms of the agreement.

Fixed Sum Loan with Guaranteed Final Payment (FSL with GFP)

Payment and equity

A Guaranteed Minimum Future Value (GMFV) is set which reflects the value of the vehicle taking into account the age and mileage at the end of the agreement. This amount is not paid off during the term of the agreement and therefore you may benefit from lower monthly payments during the term of the agreement and/or a lower deposit. However, this may result in you having lower or no equity in the vehicle at the end of the agreement if you decide to hand back the vehicle or part exchange it. As you pay the finance at a slower rate due to the GMFV not being paid during the term of the agreement, this could increase the likelihood of you owing more money than the vehicle is worth if sold before the end of the agreement.

Ownership options

- As the finance is not secured on the vehicle, you own the vehicle once purchased.
- Alternatively, you can appoint the lender to sell the vehicle on your behalf at the end of the agreement. You will receive, as a minimum, the Guaranteed Value of the vehicle. This may protect you from higher than expected depreciation levels.

A limit is set on the Annual Mileage of the vehicle. If you exceed this limit and want to return the vehicle at the end of the agreement, you will pay excess mileage charges. Because you do not pay all the amount borrowed in equal instalments during the term of the agreement, you may pay more interest when compared to a HP agreement for the same term. There are no restrictions on how you maintain or use the vehicle as the finance agreement is separate to the vehicle i.e. the loan is not secured on the vehicle. However, you may have less protection than with a Hire Purchase or Lease agreement where you can refer certain problems with the vehicle to the Lender.

However, you have the option to pay off lump sums during the agreement.

Personal Loan (PL)

Ownership options

- As the finance is not secured on the vehicle, you own the vehicle once purchased.
- You can sell the vehicle at anytime without having to pay the finance in full at the point of sale.

Restrictions/potential extra costs

There are no restrictions on how you maintain or use the vehicle as the finance agreement is separate to the vehicle i.e. the loan is not secured on the vehicle. However, you may have less protection than with a hire purchase or lease agreement where you can refer certain problems with the vehicle to the lender.

Payment and equity

Flexible terms may allow you to finance the vehicle over a longer period than leasing and PCP. By increasing your deposit you will lower the monthly payment. As the amount borrowed is paid off in equal instalments during the term of the agreement, it is more likely you will have a higher amount of equity than a PCP agreement for the same term. However, if you decide to sell the vehicle before the end of the agreement, it is advisable to pay the agreement in full (less an interest rebate) which will reduce the amount of equity you have in the vehicle and particularly in the early stages of the agreement could mean the vehicle is worth less than the amount of finance outstanding.

Hire Purchase
(HP)*Ownership options

- You have an option to own the vehicle at the end of the agreement.
- You are the registered keeper but the finance company remains the owner until the finance is paid in full.
- In some circumstances, if you have problems with the vehicle, you may be able to refer these issues to the finance company.

Restrictions/potential extra costs

There are usually no mileage restrictions though you will need to check your agreement. Excess mileage charges will not apply. You can not sell the vehicle until the finance has been paid off in full. You will need to service and insure the vehicle in line with the terms of the agreement.

Conditional Sale
(CS)*Ownership options

- You are the registered keeper but the finance company remains the owner until the finance is paid in full. Once the finance is paid in full you automatically become the owner of the vehicle.
- In some circumstances, if you have problems with the vehicle, you may be able to refer these issues to the finance company.

Leasing (L)

Ownership options

- You simply hand the vehicle back at the end of the agreement avoiding the hassle of having to sell the vehicle.
- You are renting the vehicle and never own the vehicle.
- Some agreements may allow you to add maintenance to the contract.

Restrictions/potential extra costs

A limit is set on the Annual Mileage of the vehicle. If you exceed this, you will pay excess mileage charges at the end of the contract. If the vehicle is damaged, you may have to pay damage costs when you hand the vehicle back. If you want to terminate the agreement early, you may have to pay all outstanding rentals and therefore you should take care in matching the term of the agreement to your expected requirements.

Payment and equity

As you are only using not purchasing the vehicle and therefore not paying for the full value of the vehicle, you will not have any equity in the vehicle when the agreement ends. Payments may be lower than some other forms of finance over the same period because you are not paying for the full value of the vehicle.

Finance providers

The finance providers we predominantly work with are:

- Connected Finance
